

The Memento
Blanket

Part 2 - 'Crocuses'

By Anita Gibney

Welcome to part two of our memory making, stash busting journey through the year. If you are just joining, be sure to download part 1, February - 'Valentine'. This gives all the instructions you need to make and join the individual squares to form this month's block.

As I'm writing this, hail is clattering on the roof above me, and it couldn't feel more like winter. But the first spikes of crocus leaves are appearing, which means spring is on the way.

For my crocus square this month, I've included leftover cream and green yarn from my Grandchildren's Christmas Eve Wishes blankets. I used up some oddments of purples I found in an old project bag, and I played yarn chicken with the last bit of the very first hand dyed yarn I bought.

Thank you so much to everyone who shared last month's square. It's lovely to see so many different colours. I would love you to share your progress with me on Instagram with @madebyanita or @mycraftlife or on Facebook #Mycraftlife.

Anita x

Here is my layout for February, and a blank for you to try out your own scheme with the colours you have in your stash.

